

ROCKY MOUNTAIN

ROBBED BY A DRIVER

Abraham & Straus Want Robert Feeney Arrested.

He is on the Majestic Due at Queenstown To-Day.

Collected Money, It is Said, and Did Not Return It.

When the big ocean steamer Majestic arrives at Queenstown, where she is due today, the chief constable of the port will go aboard and arrest Thomas Feeney, who, it is alleged, has run away from Brooklyn after embezzling money from the big dry-goods firm of Abraham & Straus.

Feeney abandoned his wife and child and left them in destitute circumstances in a little home in New Utrecht.

Feeney was employed by the firm about a year ago as a driver. It was at a time when there was a strike among the regular drivers, and he was not required to give the usual bond of $500. The drivers sometimes are entrusted with goods of the value of $1,000 or $1,500.

Feeney was very active and he gained the confidence of Supt. Martinhoff, of the delivery department, so that he was often entrusted to collect as much as $500 in a single trip.

On Wednesday he was sent to deliver a package to Thomas Henderson, living on McDouglass street, on which there was a bill of $150. He got the money, it is claimed, and returned to the store at noon. He applied for two weeks' pay, amounting to $25, which was paid him. The rule is to pay off in the afternoon, but he said he wanted to get lunch and had no money to pay for it.

Then he left and has not since been seen.

The following day the firm discovered the theft of the money, and they began an investigation. They found, it is asserted, that he had embezzled other sums which he had collected a few days before. Detective Corwin was detailed to hunt for him.

At the White Star office the detective was told that Feeney was there on Wednesday afternoon. He had no baggage and had evidently been running. He was wearing a dark suit and a hat, and he was accompanied by a woman.

The matter was then put in the hands of Lawyer Paul E. De Fere, of the firm of Grou, De Fere & Mayer. Mr. De Fere secured from the police a warrant for Feeney's arrest on a charge of embezzlement.

Supt. of Police Martinhoff at first refused to ask the Queenstown officials to make the arrest, but finally consented to do so.

TORE DOWN THE FENCE.

The Fuhmesters Arrested for Demolishing a Partition.

Messrs. John Fuhmester, senior and junior, of 114 Vermont avenue, Brooklyn, appeared in the Grand Avenue Court this morning to explain why they demolished a fine fence built on the roof of the house next-door, owned and occupied by Mrs. Margaret Loomis.

Some time ago Mrs. Loomis built a new house with a window overlooking Mrs. Fuhmester's house. She built a fence between the two houses, and the Fuhmesters claimed that the fence was a nuisance.

The Fuhmesters claim that the fence was a nuisance, and they demolished it. They were arrested on a charge of trespass.

Lookout on the Atlantic Avenue Railroad Amicably Settled.

Cars Running This Morning on All the Divisions.

The trolley cars on the various lines of the Atlantic Avenue Railroad Company, Brooklyn, were running as usual this morning, the lookout of the 700 motormen and conductors, which began at 6 o'clock Sunday morning, having ended late last night.

President Norton, who had formerly declined to submit to arbitration, claiming that the question about new uniforms was one of discipline only, receded from his position and agreed to a compromise.

He gave out the following statement from his standpoint, as well as his position:

From the accounts I have read this morning of the settlement of the strike there seems to be a wrong impression as to the cause of it, and of the basis upon which it was settled.

The strike was not a strike of the men against the company, but a strike of the company against the men. The company was not a party to the strike.

FOR NEWTON AGAIN?

Grand Jury Said to Be Ready to Reindict the Ex-Justice.

Fugitive Sutherland May Be Indicted for a Felony, Too.

Prominent Anti-McKaneites Before the Secret Tribunal To-Day.

The Kings County Grand Jury subpoenaed a number of witnesses this morning, and it was rumored about the Brooklyn Court-House that they were investigating Gravesend matters.

Among those who were subpoenaed as witnesses were Lawyer Edward M. Grou, formerly partner of Justice Gaynor; William E. C. Mayer and John P. McNamara.

These three witnesses figured very prominently in the prosecution of John J. McKane and other Gravesenders for election frauds last Fall.

It was stated this morning that good authority had been supplied to the grand jury that the Grand Jury was gathering evidence to find an indictment against Ex-Justice of the Peace Kenneth F. Sutherland, now a fugitive from justice, and Richard C. Newton, also an Ex-Justice, now in the Crow Hill Penitentiary.

It is believed that the grand jury is gathering evidence to find an indictment against Ex-Justice of the Peace Kenneth F. Sutherland, now a fugitive from justice, and Richard C. Newton, also an Ex-Justice, now in the Crow Hill Penitentiary.

Another indictment against Newton has been looked for since his sentence for the other Gravesend offense. He had pleaded guilty Deputy Attorney-General Edward M. Shepard learned the true state of the crime committed against the election laws by Newton and his associates.

Newton's sentence for his assistance to John J. McKane was nine months in the penitentiary, and at the time it was passed his friends congratulated him upon checkmating Mr. Shepard by pleading guilty to a lesser offense.

The names of the other Gravesenders, who, it is said, are now to be indicted, are not known.

Newton's sentence for his assistance to John J. McKane was nine months in the penitentiary, and at the time it was passed his friends congratulated him upon checkmating Mr. Shepard by pleading guilty to a lesser offense.

ANARCHISTS CAUGHT IN PARIS.

Police Discover the Existence of a Conspiracy.

Bomb Exploders Said to Have Been Selected by Lot.

(By Associated Press.)

PARIS, May 22.—The police of this city have made a number of most important arrests. The authorities recently received information which led them to believe that a conspiracy of anarchists was at work to blow up the Exposition Universelle.

The first information upon this subject is said to have come from London, and to have been in connection with the arrest in that city of the two Italian Anarchists, Farnara and Politi. The latter, it will be remembered, was announced to have turned Queen's evidence, and to have placed the police in possession of important information in regard to the plans of the British and foreign Anarchists.

The information received by the police of this city as to the existence of an extensive conspiracy turns out to be correct, and a number of Anarchists belonging to an International Society have been taken into custody.

The police are unwilling at present to give full details in regard to the plot, but it is known that the members of this society, at their meeting, drew lots as to who should explode bombs in different European cities.
